Musician and visual artist June Bisantz has co-written and produced several collections of vocal jazz, all of which have received national attention. She has performed and recorded with a number of distinguished jazz musicians including Steve Swallow, Bob Moses, Lew Soloff, Jerry Neiwood, Mike Stern, Valery Ponomarev, Palu Brown and Will Lee. Bisantz' music has also been celebrated in People Magazine, USA Today, Downbeat Magazine, Jazziz Magazine, and many others.

The artist's 2006 release, "Let's Fall in Love", inspired by the legendary Chet Baker, led to appearances at concerts and festivals including the Hartford International Jazz Festival, New England's renowned Litchfield Jazz Festival and a tour of Japan in 2012.

Bisantz returned to Japan in 2016 with "It's Always You", Volume 2 of the Chet Baker Project. This CD sets a 1960's jazz club mood, with familiar and obscure Baker tunes delivered in a style that is

"Cool and still full of emotion - just like Chet Baker"

Hans Kittlaus, Jazz Podium Magazine, Germany

"June masterfully recreates the soft, lyrical, intimate singing style of Baker. Her pure, beautiful, voice with expressive intonations envelops the listener and immerses one in an imaginary jazz club atmosphere..."

*Leonid Auskern
Jazzquad.ru, Russia*

"Most captivating of all is Bisantz, a gifted singer with a warm, bright, intensely vibrant voice and marvelous offhand timing. She navigates fast complicated melodies with sensuous feline ease. Her voice is a revelation, caressing and velvety, but electrically alive."

*Eric Levin
People Magazine*
